The Chicago Tribune.

VOL. 24. CHICAGO, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1870. NO. 89.

FOREIGN.

...nts of the Siege of Paris.

...ed Defeat of the Army of the Crown Prince.

...y Said to Have Been Driven Back on the Army of the King at Meaux.

...ial Denial of the Story Concerning Russia's Designs on Prussia.

...d Failure of Thiers' Visit to St. Petersburg.

English Cabinet Formally Consider the European Situation.

...y Decide to do Nothing, as Heretofore.

...pondence Between the English and Prussian Governments on the Neutrality Question.

...ling Disclosures Made Concerning Napoleon's Private Life.

...ish Dorcs Publish! Ordering a Levy En Masse.

FRANCE.

[Special to the New York World.]

...REAT DEFEAT OF THE ARMY OF THE CROWN PRINCE.

...don, Sept. 30.—Intense excitement was ...n here this evening on the arrival of a ...passenger from Fallersleben, bringing ...d a great battle fought at the Seine on ..., with a repulse of the complete defeat ...ssian Prince of Prussia, under the guns of ...ris. The victory was followed by the ...ch of Versailles and Rambo...and rupture of the German line at ...ted telegrams from Berlin, by way of ..., contradict this news, but it is certain ...ommunication between Paris, Rouen, Amiens, ..., have been partially reopened; ...official proclamations of the victory of ... signed by Gambetta, have been re... the latter city.

[Special to the New York World.]

...don, Sept. 30.—Later dispatches from ...ris say the exciting news has been received ...ut of the overwhelming defeat of the Ger... forces, on the south and west of Paris, by ...ny of General Ducrot and the ... the 27th. The forces were ... reinforced on Monday, by ... Paris, and advanced on the German ... Montmorenci and Versailles early Tues... ...ing. The battle began at Viroflay, on the ... contesting the French advance with ... ...ing, until they were assisted by ... ...ing forces from beneath the guns of ... Valerien, at St. Cloud, through ... the Prussian flanks, and Vauvres, ... a number of regiments of Baden troops ... in the battle 9-10 of which had to go ... Nearly a hundred of these troops ... by order of the German commander, ... rest held back and many throwing ... their arms and deserted through ... forests. The Crown Prince ... compelled to order a retreat upon ... standing Versailles to the victorious ... The German right after being ... ...age of the Seine at Bougival, was kept ... a terrible fire from Mt. Valerien, which ... their retreat into a rout, and they were ... in confusion beyond St. Germain, ... stopped the pursuit. The Germans ... prisoners, among whom are many of... the staff of the Crown Prince of Prus... ...ty cannon and mitrailleuses. Ducrot ... Orleans and Thiers is reported and clear ...

[Special to the New York Times.]

...don, Sept. 30.—The Prussians have not ad... ...ch, and have decided from their ... march, and seem to be concentrating ... Paris.

...ported movement of Prussians on Vanves ...

...don, Sept. 30.—There is mysterious activ... the German troops at Sedan, and a re... ...ment of their forces in a direction which ... carefully concealed. Reads them manœu... ...ir complete success. Provisions are ... ...ed in and surrounding country planed in ... ...ch for defence. Visitors and ... ...ch parts ...ccessy all the main points of ... ...ans, and the greatest vigilance is main... ...n every hand. Whether these extensive ... ...ations are being taken in anticipation ... ...ttack, or whether they are intended ... ...ent an exodus from a hostile metro... ...some other quarter is the direction of ... ...ersailles, Vernon or Montmedy, cannot be defi... ...ertained. However, a large force of ... cavalry has arrived, and skirmishing ... ...ed all the country. The main body are ... ...ting within the town.

[Special to the New York World.]

...don, Sept. 30.—The Prussians evacuated ... ...ay, 12 miles southwest of Versailles; no ...

THE SITUATION AT PARIS.

...don, Sept. 30.—Later advices from Paris, ... a series of successful engagements ... the city. The center of the besieged has ... ...ssively driven the enemy, ...

...ans, Sept. 30.—Later advices from ... ...nounce that the construction of bar... ...s vigorously pushed, under the ... ...ion of Marshal Bazaine and General ...

...ians have been armed with a new ... ...destructive engine. The inven... ...ad been made, and it is kept a pro... ...ecret. Greater results are expected ... ...ssion than from the famous mitrail...

...Sept. 29 via Tours 30.—Another balloon ... ...ended near Nantes to-day. ... ...ads a multitude of letters and pack... ...forward to Tours.

...Sept. 30.—Advices from Paris announce ... ...ission has shipped 10,000 ... ...y letters who landed in Amsterdam. Be... ...ers are also made in public expenditure ... ...ister of Finance by cutting down the ... ...Chambers of Commerce of Lyons and ... ...It is also proposed to reduce the ...

...ers of the provisional government ... ...ared that they don't wish any pay for ... ...ing upon the total suppression ... ...ard tax and the Octrois, and it is ex... ...ly owing to the government not ... ...ing concerned for some time past. The next ... ...portant demonstration will e make from the ... ...forts of Belle Croix and Les Bolles, in which the ... ...ench captured a few prisoners, and a few lives ... ...ere lost on both sides.

MISCELLANEOUS.

...DON, Sept. 30.—The French are the Prussian ... ...ances since her war began, and particularly since ... ...e investment of Paris, have been so immense, ...at the German authorities have taken care to ... ...conceal the facts from the newspapers.

...The Times' correspondent, writing from LUX... ...EMBURG, says: "Metzeris is very strong, but it ... ...ot was thought it could hold out."

...The French prisoners of war have been set at ... ...work constructing canals in Hanover.

...Large numbers of breech-loaders have been ... ...distributed to each of the Garde Nationale as the ... ...inferior arms.

...DON, Sept. 30.—It is said that the French re... ...pulsed the Prussians at Nanies.

...According to a statement which appears in ... ...L'Univers,' Marshal LeBoeuf, late Napoleon's ... ...Chief of Staff, sought death in the battles near ... ...Metz, and displayed the most reckless ... ...It admits that France was unprepared for ... ...confesses that he did not dare tell the Emperor ... ...before the war commenced what the state of the ... ...army was.

...BERLIN, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from Pirriteux states that, on Thursday, the King reconnoitered the French lines from St. Denis to Romainville.

...The town of Kehl is crowded with refugees from Strasbourg awaiting permission to return to the city.

...TOURS, Sept. 30.—Arrangements have been made which, if successfully carried out, will give us news from Paris every day.

...A number of Italian and Spanish volunteers are expected at Lyons.

...The weather continues warm and clear. The water in the rivers is so low that the Prussians easily ford anywhere.

...LONDON, Sept. 30.—Confidence is returning in Paris.

...It is vaguely rumored that some powerful neutral power has interposed to prevent the bombardment of Paris, and that the prospect of Villaparis is re... ...ferred to.

...The Prussians are continuously cutting timber. They were engaged throwing up works at Meudon, Bellevue and on Meudon Terrace. Works will face Forts Vanves and Issy, on the south of Paris. The Prussians have occupied Bourdon, 10 miles southwest of Versailles, and it is reported that they have reached Chiverval and Gardevith, in the Department of the Seine, at Brie, Ablis and Dourdan. Regiments have passed through Paris since the last reports. The French were reported to have obtained fresh successes.

RUSSIA.

...LONDON, Sept. 30.—There is no statement in the military preparations of Russia.

...At the request of Emperor Alexander personal interests are daily turned into newspapers.

...ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 30.—The Journal, of this city (official organ), emphatically denies the report of the Russian purchase of new iron-clad monitors from the United States. The Journal also formally denies the story of the concentration of Russian troops on the Turkish frontier, and the recall of General Ignatiff, Russian Ambassador at Constantinople. The Journal adds that the Russian policy is one of peace and justice.

[Special Dispatch to the New York World.]

...ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 30.—Count Bismarck arrives to-morrow to return to Vienna, a sadder but wiser man. His mission, which was to convince Russia of the danger of suffering Prussia to become too great by annexation of territory, and the value of maintaining the treaty of peace of Paris, entirely failed. Notwithstanding the earnest solicitations of the veteran statesman for an interview with the Emperor, the latter positively and resolutely declined. Gortschakoff represented to Thiers the impossibility of recognizing in him any official authority, and the inexpediency of the Russian Government having any official intercourse with a person whose avowed mission was to create distrust and enmity on the part of Russia, now a friendly power. Thiers, since his interview with the Minister, has expressed the conviction that France has nothing to hope now from Russia.

...Great activity prevails in the military departments. Orders have been issued for the concentration of stores at different points. A commission of Engineers has left here to-day on examination of the fortifications at Odessa in view of contemplated intervention.

...LONDON, Sept. 30.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg reports that the Czar consented to receive Thiers only at a private interview and as a private individual.

GREAT BRITAIN.

[Special Dispatch to the New York World.]

...LONDON, Sept. 30.—At the Cabinet meeting to-day the whole subject of the European situation came under discussion. The meeting was fully attended. Mr. Bruce, Home Secretary, arrived in importance of such action on the part of England as should associate with Russia in the protection of Europe, pointing to the danger of Italy contract the limitation of her army, and of an inevitable interference to a power which had much interest in depressing and none in enlarging the influence of Great Britain. Earl Granville, Secretary of Foreign Affairs, and Mr. Cardwell, Secretary of War, were not indisposed to this view, but represented the impossibility of action without recognizing the French Republic, which they maintained, existed only by the irresponsible act of the galleries of the legislative body. The Duke of Argyle, Secretary for India, objected that the republic had been recognized by the United States Government, and that it would be a sort of constructive discourtesy to the United States to assume that a government which existed authority and will in France. ... Cabinet ... to-morrow. ... Argyle ... Granville ... Cardwell ... Bruce ... Lowe ... Gladstone ... Chancellor ... Exchequer ... Earl ... Lord ... Privy ... Duke ... Lord ... Chancellor ... Lord ... Chief ... Secretary ... Lord ... Lord ... Lord

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Speech of Ex-Governor Oglesby, at Bellefontaine, Sept. 29.

Mr. Chairman and Fellow-Citizens:

I am here to-day to address you upon the issues of the present campaign, and I am here to say that I am a Republican, and that I am proud of the name. I am proud of the history of the Republican party, and I am proud of the men who have made that history. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of progress, and that it has been the party of liberty. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the people, and that it has been the party of the Union. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the Constitution, and that it has been the party of the laws. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the flag, and that it has been the party of the country. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the soldier, and that it has been the party of the sailor. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the widow, and that it has been the party of the orphan. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the slave, and that it has been the party of the freedman. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the negro, and that it has been the party of the white man. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the rich man, and that it has been the party of the poor man. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the educated man, and that it has been the party of the ignorant man. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the native-born citizen, and that it has been the party of the foreign-born citizen. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the Protestant, and that it has been the party of the Catholic. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the Jew, and that it has been the party of the Gentile. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the white man, and that it has been the party of the black man. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the man, and that it has been the party of the woman. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the child, and that it has been the party of the infant. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the living, and that it has been the party of the dead. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the past, and that it has been the party of the present, and that it has been the party of the future. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the world, and that it has been the party of the universe. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of God, and that it has been the party of man. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of heaven, and that it has been the party of earth. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the sun, and that it has been the party of the moon. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the stars, and that it has been the party of the planets. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the comets, and that it has been the party of the meteors. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the rainbow, and that it has been the party of the clouds. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the rain, and that it has been the party of the snow. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the hail, and that it has been the party of the sleet. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the frost, and that it has been the party of the ice. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the heat, and that it has been the party of the cold. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the light, and that it has been the party of the darkness. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the day, and that it has been the party of the night. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the morning, and that it has been the party of the evening. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the noon, and that it has been the party of the midnight. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the hour, and that it has been the party of the minute. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the second, and that it has been the party of the eternity. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the beginning, and that it has been the party of the end. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the alpha, and that it has been the party of the omega. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the A, and that it has been the party of the Z. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the one, and that it has been the party of the all. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the unity, and that it has been the party of the diversity. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the liberty, and that it has been the party of the law. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the order, and that it has been the party of the progress. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the peace, and that it has been the party of the war. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the victory, and that it has been the party of the defeat. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the success, and that it has been the party of the failure. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the glory, and that it has been the party of the shame. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the honor, and that it has been the party of the dishonor. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the virtue, and that it has been the party of the vice. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the truth, and that it has been the party of the falsehood. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the right, and that it has been the party of the wrong. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the good, and that it has been the party of the evil. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the beautiful, and that it has been the party of the ugly. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the sublime, and that it has been the party of the ridiculous. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the pathetic, and that it has been the party of the humorous. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the tragic, and that it has been the party of the comic. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the romantic, and that it has been the party of the classic. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the modern, and that it has been the party of the ancient. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the present, and that it has been the party of the past. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the future, and that it has been the party of the eternity. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the infinite, and that it has been the party of the finite. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the absolute, and that it has been the party of the relative. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the subject, and that it has been the party of the object. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the mind, and that it has been the party of the matter. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the spirit, and that it has been the party of the flesh. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the soul, and that it has been the party of the body. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the heart, and that it has been the party of the head. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the hand, and that it has been the party of the foot. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the eye, and that it has been the party of the ear. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the nose, and that it has been the party of the mouth. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the tongue, and that it has been the party of the lip. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the tooth, and that it has been the party of the gum. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the throat, and that it has been the party of the chest. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the lung, and that it has been the party of the liver. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the stomach, and that it has been the party of the bowel. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the kidney, and that it has been the party of the bladder. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the skin, and that it has been the party of the hair. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the nail, and that it has been the party of the finger. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the toe, and that it has been the party of the foot. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the leg, and that it has been the party of the arm. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the hand, and that it has been the party of the finger. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the thumb, and that it has been the party of the finger. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the nail, and that it has been the party of the finger. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the finger, and that it has been the party of the thumb. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the finger, and that it has been the party of the nail. I am proud of the fact that the Republican party has been the party of the finger, and that it has been the party of the finger

THE COURTS.

Assignment of Two Stock Frauds—A Tale of Horror.

Alleged Social Crime—Losing to Win—Real Estate Matters.

Criminal Court.

BLACK MAILING.

Charles Johnson and James Kinney, two colored horses, one of whom is of more reputable extent, and an black coal-charred wench, swore before a white justice that they had been robbed of $100 in greenbacks by the said Dorcas and another wench. They pleaded not guilty of both charges, and on the testimony of the colleged wenches were held to bail in $500 each.

It appeared from her testimony that the Jezebel Dorcas had been arrested on Clark Street on a morning of last April, and being able to raise only $100 was locked up in the Station-House. Her father drove from home, and tendered his son of three, from a former marriage, and one woman, from whom Dorcas had stolen, to go bail for her release. Both refused to have anything with a view to relieving to her distress. Kinney, the negro-thief, at once offered to go bail for the prisoner, and forced her back over a bellow by the nerves, and thereby lost from Baltimore. She was released, and Kinney and Johnson, who had been locked up for safe-keeping, were released from the jail, and the other prevented. Following from the police station,

NORTH SIDE IMPROVEMENTS

Public Meeting Last Evening—How to Purify the North Branch.

Address by Hon. Joseph Medill—Remarks of Hon. W. B. Ogden.

A public meeting, under the auspices of the North Side Improvement Committee, was held last evening, at Turner Hall, on North Clark-street, which might reasonably and rightly, in one of its characteristics, be termed a meeting of indignation. The immediate cause of the meeting was the foul condition of the North Branch.

Hon. Wm. B. Ogden was called to the chair, and in a few remarks stated the object of the meeting, which was to devise some means to purify the North Branch. He was followed by who moved the appointment of a committee to wait upon the Board of Public Works, and request that the Board would, at its meeting to-day, take some action in the matter. He said that the stench was so great, and had been for a long time, that it was impossible to live in the vicinity of the river. He had himself been compelled to remove his family from the neighborhood, where he will soon be compelled to follow them. He had been informed that the stench was so great that it could be smelled in the cars of the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, running at No. 17 West Kinzie-street, and that the passengers complained of it. He thought that the Board of Public Works had not done its duty in the matter, and that it had the right to compel action.

Mr. E. S. Cobb,

Mr. Cobb's motion was carried, and the following committee was appointed to wait upon the Board of Public Works: Messrs. Cobb, Ogden, Medill, Wentworth, Bishop, Bolgiano, Carl, Dirr, Dunlap, Porter and Michigan-avenue.

Accidents.

A boy named Peter Casey, 7 years of age, was run over on Wells-street by a wagon on Thursday afternoon, and had his right leg badly crushed.

Meteorological.

Meteorological record for Sept. 30, 1870, as reported by J. R. Langdon, Jr., Sprague, No. 117 Dearborn-street, corresponding to the North-western Railway Observatory, Evanston: Barometer reduced to 32° Fahrenheit. Figures give the height for the words "rainy," "fair," "most atmosphere," "rain," and "snow."

Hour.	Wind.	Direc.	Vel.	Rain.
7 a.m.	S.W.	Fair.	8	0.00
2 p.m.	S.W.	Fair.	8	0.00
9 p.m.	S.W.	Fair.	8	0.00

MINIATURE ALMANAC.

Sun rises	5:58 a.m.	Moon rises	3:00 p.m.
Sun sets	5:34 p.m.	Moon sets	3:00 a.m.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1, 1870.

Miscellaneous.

About 11 o'clock on Saturday night, the 24th inst., Charles Gerson, a sailor on the schooner Fremont, lying at the foot of Rush-street bridge, was assaulted by a man named Thomas Ryan, who struck him on the head with a club, and then jumped into the lake and was drowned. Gerson died in a few days after the occurrence. Ryan is in search of him, but he could not be found. He has been arrested on the charge of murder, and lodged in the Central Station. The inquest on Gerson's body was held before Justice Boyington, and the verdict rendered was that Gerson came to his death from violence at the hands of Thomas Ryan.

Mr. Kerrison, a beauty and exact specimen of the Quaker, with a request that his advertisement be inserted in the Tribune, for the benefit of the public, called at this office.

The Chairman, also on account of his name, spoke in favor of the Democratic ticket. He had been elected from the South Branch to the Legislature, and had been a member of the Legislature from Dearborn-street for two years. He refers to Dr. Duncan, who was for four years in the Legislature from the South Branch, and to their studies in the same college, and both were in favor of the Democratic ticket. He referred to Mr. Goodrich, who had studied Shakespeare and Milton, and had been a very successful student of Sunday-school literature. He thanked God he only voted once for Mr. Lincoln. He had not had cause to repent it. He would not vote for Lincoln again, but he would not vote for Seymour. He would vote for Judge Allen, who was known to be a man of honor and integrity, and a gentleman.

The Democratic ticket was then read by the chairman, and the Democratic meeting adjourned.

The Turf.

THE TROTTING MATINEE.

which was to have taken place this afternoon, at the Garden City Course, in honor of the Prince of Wales, has been postponed on account of the weather. The track was in a horrible condition, and was also empowered to collect the money subscribed for the purse. Mr. Johnson, the secretary and treasurer, returned the greater part of the money to the subscribers, and will sue for a further hearing this morning.

The Committee of Arrangements, in the matter of the Fourth National Bank, met last night at the office of Mr. Thomas D. Jo s Washington-street. Two propositions were submitted, one from Mr. Hatch, and the other from Mr. Lee. The latter was accepted, and the committee will at once proceed to carry it into effect. The new building will be ready for occupancy by the 1st of December next.

Mr. Kerrison, a beauty and exact specimen of the Quaker, with a request that his advertisement be inserted in the Tribune, for the benefit of the public, called at this office.

The Chairman, also on account of his name, spoke in favor of the Democratic ticket. He had been elected from the South Branch to the Legislature, and had been a member of the Legislature from Dearborn-street for two years. He refers to Dr. Duncan, who was for four years in the Legislature from the South Branch, and to their studies in the same college, and both were in favor of the Democratic ticket. He referred to Mr. Goodrich, who had studied Shakespeare and Milton, and had been a very successful student of Sunday-school literature. He thanked God he only voted once for Mr. Lincoln. He had not had cause to repent it. He would not vote for Lincoln again, but he would not vote for Seymour. He would vote for Judge Allen, who was known to be a man of honor and integrity, and a gentleman.

The Democratic ticket was then read by the chairman, and the Democratic meeting adjourned.

The Turf.

THE TROTTING MATINEE.

which was to have taken place this afternoon, at the Garden City Course, in honor of the Prince of Wales, has been postponed on account of the weather. The track was in a horrible condition, and was also empowered to collect the money subscribed for the purse. Mr. Johnson, the secretary and treasurer, returned the greater part of the money to the subscribers, and will sue for a further hearing this morning.

The Committee of Arrangements, in the matter of the Fourth National Bank, met last night at the office of Mr. Thomas D. Jo s Washington-street. Two propositions were submitted, one from Mr. Hatch, and the other from Mr. Lee. The latter was accepted, and the committee will at once proceed to carry it into effect. The new building will be ready for occupancy by the 1st of December next.

THE SPORTING WORLD.

The White Stockings at Fort Wayne—The Red Stocking Return Game.

Postponement of the Trotting Matinee—Billiard Matters.

Base Ball.

THE WHITE STOCKINGS

will reach home this morning, and, after partaking of the breakfast provided by the Committee of Arrangements, will proceed to the Palmer House, where they will make their re-appearance in public, and receive the congratulations of their friends. The Fort Wayne Sentinel says that the reception given to the Chicagos was a most enthusiastic one, and that the streets, the depot, and, indeed, the whole town was filled with people. The ball game was played in the afternoon, and the Chicagos won by a score of 29 to 4.

The following is the score:

Chicago.	O.	R.	Fort Wayne.	O.	R.
Foley, c.	0	4	Hall, c.	0	0
Addy, p.	0	4	Hatfield, p.	0	0
Pratt, 1st b.	0	4	Hoffman, 1st b.	0	0
Hallinan, 2d b.	0	4	Hoffman, 2d b.	0	0
Treacy, 3d b.	0	4	Hoffman, 3d b.	0	0
Dalton, s. s.	0	4	Hoffman, s. s.	0	0
Hines, l. f.	0	4	Hoffman, l. f.	0	0
Gould, c. f.	0	4	Hoffman, c. f.	0	0
Spalding, r. f.	0	1	Hoffman, r. f.	0	0
Total	0	29	Total	0	4

THE RETURN GAME

will reach home this morning, and, after partaking of the breakfast provided by the Committee of Arrangements, will proceed to the Palmer House, where they will make their re-appearance in public, and receive the congratulations of their friends. The Fort Wayne Sentinel says that the reception given to the Chicagos was a most enthusiastic one, and that the streets, the depot, and, indeed, the whole town was filled with people. The ball game was played in the afternoon, and the Chicagos won by a score of 29 to 4.

The following is the score:

Chicago.	O.	R.	Fort Wayne.	O.	R.
Foley, c.	0	4	Hall, c.	0	0
Addy, p.	0	4	Hatfield, p.	0	0
Pratt, 1st b.	0	4	Hoffman, 1st b.	0	0
Hallinan, 2d b.	0	4	Hoffman, 2d b.	0	0
Treacy, 3d b.	0	4	Hoffman, 3d b.	0	0
Dalton, s. s.	0	4	Hoffman, s. s.	0	0
Hines, l. f.	0	4	Hoffman, l. f.	0	0
Gould, c. f.	0	4	Hoffman, c. f.	0	0
Spalding, r. f.	0	1	Hoffman, r. f.	0	0
Total	0	29	Total	0	4

Billiards.

SOME INSOLUBLE RIDDLES SOLVED AND DONE.

From the New York World, Sept. 25.

Yesterday afternoon, at Connelly and Boyd's, of the Chamberlain Combination, a number of the stakeholders, called upon the professional stakeholder, Mr. Edward Foley, to make their report. Mr. Foley, who is well known in the pedestrian world, was elected stakeholder by the committee of the Chamberlain Combination, and who, in addition to his being stakeholder between two of the contestants, was also appointed referee in the event of any disagreement arising between the contestants. Mr. Foley, who is well known in the pedestrian world, was elected stakeholder by the committee of the Chamberlain Combination, and who, in addition to his being stakeholder between two of the contestants, was also appointed referee in the event of any disagreement arising between the contestants.

WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

LOAN CERTIFICATES TO BE CALLED IN.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circular notifying the following 5 per cent temporary loan certificates. The first redemption will embrace all outstanding certificates of the denomination of $5,000, numbered 66, and all $1,000 certificates under and including that numbered 67. The second will include all $5,000 certificates over and including that numbered 66, and all $1,000 certificates under and including that numbered 67. The third will include all $10,000 certificates over and including that numbered 66, and all $5,000 certificates under and including that numbered 67. The fourth will include all $10,000 certificates under and including that numbered 66.

Burning the Bermuda.

The North German steamer Berlin got off from Bermuda on the 24th inst., and encountered a severe gale and a pretty fair sample of a typhoon, succeeding to foul condition, still she would run in if the French war vessel off Fort-de-France. The night the typhoon was at its height, the Berlin's engineer, and coming has been away from twenty of any trouble.

Storm.

A storm of unusual severity is prevailing, tonight, in Maryland and Virginia. No mail has arrived since yesterday morning from any of the rivers to the Tennessee line are at flood height. The storm is moving east and north. All the streams in Loudoun and Fairfax counties are rising rapidly, and the storm appears to be increasing.

Naval.

The Navy Department is not particularly pleased with the performance of our war vessels, the Monadnock and Canonicus, which were ordered to Portland, Me., to-day, and the other running down a schooner where both were in plain sight of each other.

The United States has entered suit against the city of Richmond for refusing to pay the government tax.

The Fall Trade.

The information at the Treasury Department is that the fall trade is opening with unusual activity, and that the receipts from internal revenue will be fully equal to the expectations of the Secretary. It is under the supervision of Mr. Rollins, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, that the collection of the tax is so closely watched, and that so few evasions of it are successful.

The Postal Grove Meeting.

GALESBURG, Ill., Sept. 30.—The fall meeting of the Knox County Grove Association, will be held on the 6th inst., on the 6th inst., on account of many of the members being engaged in the Fair at Chicago. This change is not redeemable, and Treasurer Hamilton will be present to receive the money.

Treasury Item.

Secretary Boutwell has issued an order to the various Internal Revenue Collectors, directing them to make returns for the next fiscal year, to make them in accordance with the law, and not in any case to exceed the estimates for the same. Estimates for deficiencies must be made in the same manner. Estimates for deficiencies must be made in the same manner.

Billiards.

SOME INSOLUBLE RIDDLES SOLVED AND DONE.

From the New York World, Sept. 25.

Yesterday afternoon, at Connelly and Boyd's, of the Chamberlain Combination, a number of the stakeholders, called upon the professional stakeholder, Mr. Edward Foley, to make their report. Mr. Foley, who is well known in the pedestrian world, was elected stakeholder by the committee of the Chamberlain Combination, and who, in addition to his being stakeholder between two of the contestants, was also appointed referee in the event of any disagreement arising between the contestants.

FAIRS.

Closing Day of the Illinois State Fair.

The Exhibition a Decided Success

Close of the Wisconsin State Fair.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

DECATUR, Ill., Sept. 30.—The closing day of the Illinois State Fair was a success. Rain fell at intervals during the night, and continued to drizzle all the forenoon, but cleared off in the afternoon, and the attendance was very large. The receipts for the day will reach $3,000. The exhibition has been a success in every respect, and will undoubtedly be repeated next year.

The Fortieth and Forty-first regiments of infantry followed. The first officer who obtained a position on the platform was Col. Rogers, of Chicago, who was followed by Col. Mulligan, of Chicago, who was followed by Col. Mulligan, of Chicago, who was followed by Col. Mulligan